Heb 1:1 In many and various ways God spoke of old to our fathers by the prophets; 2 but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world. 3 He reflects the glory of God and bears the very stamp of his nature, upholding the universe by his word of power. When he had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, 4 having become as much superior to angels as the name he has obtained is more excellent than theirs.

Heb 1:1 In many and various ways God spoke of old to our fathers by the prophets; 2 but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world. 3 He reflects the glory of God and bears the very stamp of his nature, upholding the universe by his word of power. When he had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, 4 having become as much superior to angels as the name he has obtained is more excellent than theirs.

Hebrews RSV

1 In many and various ways God spoke of old to our fathers by the prophets; 2 but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world. 3 He reflects the glory of God and bears the very stamp of his nature, upholding the universe by his word of power. When he had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, 4 having become as much superior to angels as the name he has obtained is more excellent than theirs.

Hebrews 1:1-4

1:1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, To the saints and brethren in Christ at Colossae: Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ, who is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of all creation, who has made himself visible, being in the form of God, who has not emptied himself, but has taken the form of a slave, being made in the likeness of men, and being found in the appearance of a man, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Because of this he was exalted above all names, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of the Father who sits on the throne in heaven. From now on, let everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of the Scriptures be diligent to obey, lest they have to suffer the consequences of disobedience. For if we do not believe, we shall be destroyed, and shall be destroyed with him who has destroyed the disobedient. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared for us to do. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared for us to do. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared for us to do.

1:2 And so, from the day we heard of it, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, 10 to lead a life worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God. 11 May you be strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy, 12 giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified us to share in the inheritance of the saints in light. 13 He has delivered us from the dominion of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, 14 in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. 15 He is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of all creation; 16 for in him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or authorities—all things were created through him and for him. 17 He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. 18 He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the first-born from the dead, and in everything he might be pre-eminent. 19 For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell. 20 and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross. 21 And who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be grasped, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in the likeness of men and being found in the appearance of a man. He humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Because of this, God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above all names, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of the Father who sits on the throne in heaven. From now on, let everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of the Scriptures be diligent to obey, lest they have to suffer the consequences of disobedience.
