CHRISTOLOGY

THE PARADOX OF SONSHIP

Christology in the Epistle to the Hebrews

R. B. Jamieson

Foreword by

Simon J. Gathercole

An imprint of InterVarsity Press
Downers Grove, Illinois

The-Paradox-of-Sonship-Christology-in-the-Epistle-to-the-Hebrews

This book is about a name—or rather, a title, “Son,” that at one crucial juncture the author of the Epistle to the Hebrews calls a “name.” The fundamental question this book asks is, What does the author of Hebrews mean by calling Jesus the “Son”? Is “Son” a title given Jesus at his enthronement as Messiah, his session at God’s right hand? Or does “Son” denote his eternal inclusion in the identity of the one true God?

Hebrews 1-4

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, To the saints faithful brethren in Christ who are at Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 2 We have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love which you have for all the saints, because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. Of this you have heard before in the word of the truth, the gospel which has come to you, and indeed in the whole world it is bearing fruit and growing—so among yourselves, from the day you heard and understood the grace of God in truth, 7 as you learned it from Epaphras our beloved fellow servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on our behalf 8 and has made known to us your love in the Spirit. 9 And so, from the day we heard of it, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, 10 to lead a life worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God. 11 May you be strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy, 12 giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified us to share in the inheritance of the saints in light. 13 He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, 14 in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. 15 He is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of all creation; 16 for in him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or authorities—all things were created through him and for him. 17 He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. 18 He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the first-born from the dead, and in everything he might be pre-eminent. 19 For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell. 20 and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross. 21 And who, once you were estranged and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, 22 he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present every man mature in Christ, 23 though you were once alienated and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, 24 and you were brought back to God by his death, when you were in your hearts without God, living in your earthly minds. 25 He has forgiven us all our sins, when we were without God, because of his own blood. 26 He has put us to death therefore with his own fleshly body, so that he might purify to himself a peculiar people, zealous of good deeds, 27 obedient to the word of life. 28 He has sent him to declare the mystery of Christ, on account of which I am in prison, so that I may make it clear, as I ought to speak, that I may make it clear, as I ought to speak, that I may make it clear, as I ought to speak.

1 And you, who once were estranged and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, 22 he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present every man mature in Christ, 23 though you were once alienated and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, 24 and you were brought back to God by his death, when you were in your hearts without God, living in your earthly minds. 25 He has forgiven us all our sins, when we were without God, because of his own blood. 26 He has put us to death therefore with his own fleshly body, so that he might purify to himself a peculiar people, zealous of good deeds, 27 obedient to the word of life. 28 He has sent him to declare the mystery of Christ, on account of which I am in prison, so that I may make it clear, as I ought to speak, that I may make it clear, as I ought to speak.

1 For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily, 19 and you have come to fullness of life, in him, who is the image of the invisible God, 20 the first-born of the Father, by whom all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or authorities—all things were created through him and for him. 21 He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. 22 He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the first-born from the dead, and in everything he might be pre-eminent. 23 For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell. 24 and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross. 25 And who, once you were estranged and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, 22 he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present every man mature in Christ, 23 though you were once alienated and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, 24 and you were brought back to God by his death, when you were in your hearts without God, living in your earthly minds. 25 He has forgiven us all our sins, when we were without God, because of his own blood. 26 He has put us to death therefore with his own fleshly body, so that he might purify to himself a peculiar people, zealous of good deeds, 27 obedient to the word of life. 28 He has sent him to declare the mystery of Christ, on account of which I am in prison, so that I may make it clear, as I ought to speak, that I may make it clear, as I ought to speak.

Galatians

1:1 Paul an apostle—not from men nor through man, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father...

1:2 I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting him who called you in the grace of Christ and turning to a different gospel...

1:3 For I am amazed that you are so quickly deserting him who called you in the grace of Christ and turning to a different gospel...

1:4 And they glorified God because of me.

1:5 Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas, and remained with him fifteen days...

1:6 And from those who were reputed to be something (what God makes no difference to me, God shows no partiality).

1:7 Then after fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus along with me...

1:8 And I said before them that I preach among the Gentiles, but somehow I should be wanting as they had no vain.

1:9 But even Titus, who was with me, was not compelled to be circumcised, though he was a Greek.

1:10 And because of false brethren secretly brought in, who slipped in to spy out our freedom which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage...

1:11 So then we did not yield submission even for a moment, that the truth of the gospel might be preserved for you.

1:12 I have become as much superior to angels as the name he has obtained is more excellent than theirs.

1:13 To give a human example, brethren: no one annuls even a man's will, or adds to it, once it has been ratified.

1:14 But if I build up again those things which I have destroyed, I shall be a transgressor.

1:15 For I died to the law, that I might live to God.

1:16 I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me.

1:17 I do not nullify the grace of God, for if justification were through the law, then Christ would have died in vain.

1:18 I have become as much superior to angels as the name he has obtained is more excellent than theirs.

1 John

Heb 1:1 In many and various ways God spoke of old to our fathers by the prophets; 2 but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world. 3 He reflects the glory of God and bears the very stamp of his nature, upholding the universe by his word of power. When he had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, 4 having become as much superior to angels as the name he has obtained is more excellent than theirs.

Topics & Concepts

1/1 That which was from the beginning, which we have seen and heard, which we have looked upon and touched with our hands, and we have heard the voice and seen the glory which we have seen and heard, we proclaim also to you, so that you may have fellowship with us; and our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. 2 And we are writing this that our joy may be complete. 3 This is the message which we have heard from him and proclaimed to you, that God is light and in him is no darkness at all. 4 If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not live according to the truth; but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. 5 If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 6 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 7 If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

2/1 My little children, I am writing this to you so that you may not sin; but if any one does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. 2 and he is the expiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world. 3 And by this we may be sure that we know him, if we keep his commandments. 4 He who says "I know him" but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him; 5 but whoever keeps his word, in him truly love for God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: 6 he who says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked.

3/1 Beloved, I am writing you no new commandment, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning: the old commandment is the word which you have heard. 2 Yet I am writing you a new commandment, which is true in him and in us, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining. 3 He who says he is in the light and hates his brother is in the darkness still. 4 He who loves his brother abides in the light, and in it there is no cause for stumbling. 5 But he who hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

1/2 I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven for his sake. 1/3 I am not writing to you, fathers, because you know him who is to come in the world; but I am writing to you, young men, because you know him who is to come in the world. 1/4 Every one who does not know him who is to come in the world is the deceiver of many. 1/5 Every one who does not know him who is to come in the world is the deceiver of many. 1/6 Every one who does not know him who is to come in the world is the deceiver of many. 1/7 Every one who does not know him who is to come in the world is the ## Mains

Heb 1:1 In many and various ways God spoke of old to our fathers by the prophets; 2 but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world. 3 He reflects the glory of God and bears the very stamp of his nature, upholding the universe by his word of power. When he had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, 4 having become as much superior to angels as the name he has obtained is more excellent than theirs.
