Heb 1:1 In many and various ways God spoke of old to our fathers by the prophets; 2 but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world. 3 He reflects the glory of God and bears the very stamp of his nature, upholding the universe by his word of power. When he had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, 4 having become as much superior to angels as the name he has obtained is more excellent than theirs.

Col 1:12 giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified us to share in the inheritance of the saints in light. 13 He has delivered us from the dominion of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, 14 in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

What is MAN?

- 1Jo 4:1 ¶ Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are of God; for many false prophets have gone out into the world. 2 By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit which confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, 3 and every spirit which does not confess Jesus is not of God. This is the spirit of antichrist, of which you heard that it was coming, and now it is in the world already.

What is MAN?

- Heb 2:5 ¶ For it was not to angels that God subjected the world to come, of which we are speaking. 6 It has been testified somewhere, "What is man that thou art mindful of him, or the son of man, that thou carest for him?" 7 Thou didst make him for a little while lower than the angels, thou hast crowned him with glory and honor, 8 putting everything in subjection under his feet." Now in putting everything in subjection to him, he left nothing outside his control. As it is, we do not yet see everything in subjection to him. 9 But we see Jesus, who for a little while was made lower than the angels, crowned with glory and honor because of the suffering of death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for every one. 10 ¶ For it was fitting that he, for whom and by whom all things exist, in bringing many sons to glory, should make the pioneer of their salvation perfect through suffering. 11 For he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified have all one origin. That is why he is not ashamed to call them brethren, 12 saying, "I will proclaim thy name to my brethren, in the midst of the congregation I will praise thee." 13 And again, "I will put my trust in him." And again, "Here am I, and the children God has given me." Ps 8:3-9

objective, surface level meaning that can be universally understood through simple reference, like a dictionary

subjective, deeper level meaning that may require detailed explanation of traditional feelings, images, and thoughts, that the word evokes in a cultural context; might be rejected

individual, personalized meaning that you associate with words based on contexts in which you've experienced them; must be explained in order for others to understand the meaning

The Four Layers of Analysis

1. The literal meaning:

the dictionary definition of the word or phrase that you have chosen; try to identify the writer's technique like repetition or a metaphor.

2. The deeper meaning:

The meaning behind the literal meaning; associated meanings; the connotations; what the word or phrase "suggests" to the reader.

3. The writer's intention:

What did the writer want his audience to understand or learn? What message did he/she want to give the reader and for what reason? When and why was he/she writing?

4. The effect on the reader/audience:

How do different readers and audiences react to the text? Why?

Hebrews 1:1-4

1/1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ who are at Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ, who is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of all creation; 16 for in him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or authorities—all things were created through him and for him. 17 He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. 18 He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the first-born from the dead, that in everything he might be pre-eminent. 19 For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell. 20 and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross. 21 And you, who once were estranged and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, 22 he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and without blemish to himself in glory, 23 if indeed you have continued in the faith and not been shaken by the afflictions which have come upon you to trial. 24 Now I rejoice in your sufferings for you, and in my flesh I complete what is lacking of Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, the church, 25 of which I became a minister, to them God chose to make known how among the Gentiles are the riches of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the glory. 26 Him we proclaim, warning every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man mature in Christ. 27 To them God chose to make known how among the Gentiles are the riches of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the glory. 28 Him we proclaim, warning every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man mature in Christ. 29 I tell you all about my affairs; he rother and faithful minister and in the Lord. 31 I have sent him to you for a purpose, that you may know that he may encourage your with him Onesimos, the faithful other, who is one of yourselves. 32 I tell you all about my affairs; he rother and faithful minister and in the Lord. 31 I have sent him to you for a purpose, that you may know that he may encourage your with him Onesimos, the faithful other, who is one of yourselves. 32 I tell you all about my affairs; he rother and faithful minister and in the Lord. 31 I have sent him to you for a purpose, that you may know that he may encourage your with him Onesimos, the faithful other, who is one of yourselves. 32

For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily, 19 and you have come to fullness of life, in him, who is the image of the Father, the glory of God is seen. 20 In the body of flesh you once walked, 21 and you were raised with him through baptism, 22 and now put them away, wrath, malice, slander, and foul talk from your mouth, 9 Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the evil nature, which you were raised with him through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead, and seated him at the right hand of the Majesty on high, 4 having become as much superior to angels as the name he has obtained is more excellent than theirs.

20 and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross. 21 And you, who once were estranged and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, 22 he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and without blemish to himself in glory, 23 if indeed you have continued in the faith and not been shaken by the afflictions which have come upon you to trial. 24 Now I rejoice in your sufferings for you, and in my flesh I complete what is lacking of Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, the church, 25 of which I became a minister, to them God chose to make known how among the Gentiles are the riches of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the glory. 26 Him we proclaim, warning every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man mature in Christ. 27 To them God chose to make known how among the Gentiles are the riches of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the glory. 28 Him we proclaim, warning every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man mature in Christ. 29 I tell you all about my affairs; he rother and faithful minister and in the Lord. 31 I have sent him to you for a purpose, that you may know that he may encourage your with him Onesimos, the faithful other, who is one of yourselves. 32 I tell you all about my affairs; he rother and faithful minister and in the Lord. 31 I have sent him to you for a purpose, that you may know that he may encourage your with him Onesimos, the faithful other, who is one of yourselves. 32

1 John

Heb 1:1 In many and various ways God spoke of old to our fathers by the prophets; 2 but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world. 3 He reflects the glory of God and bears the very stamp of his nature, upholding the universe by his word of power. When he had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, 4 having become as much superior to angels as the name he has obtained is more excellent than theirs.

Hebrews

1/1 That which was from the beginning, which we have seen and heard, which we have looked upon and touched, which we have handled, which we have heard and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you may have fellowship with us; and our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. 2 And we are writing this that our joy may be complete.

5 This is the message which we have heard from him and proclaimed to you, that God is light and in him is no darkness at all. 6 If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not live according to the truth; but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. 7 If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 8 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 9 If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

2/1 My little children, I am writing this to you so that you may not sin; but if any one does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. 2 and he is the expiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And by this we may be sure that we know him, if we keep his commandments. 4 He who says "I know him" but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him; 5 but whoever keeps his word, in him truly love for God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: 6 he who says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked.

7 Beloved, I am writing you no new commandment, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning: the old commandment is the word which you have heard. 8 Yet I am writing you a new commandment, which is true in him and true, and is no lie, just as it has taught you, abide in him, and the true light is already shining. 9 He who says he is in the light and hates his brother is in the darkness still. 10 He who loves his brother abides in the light, and in it there is no cause for stumbling. 11 But he who hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

1/2 I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven for his sake. 1/3 I am writing to you, fathers, because you know him who came in the flesh, who has come into the world, and who has appeared to you, and who has touched you, and whose name you have heard. 1/4 I am writing to you, young men, because you know him who has appeared to you, and who has touched you, and whose name you have heard. 1/5 I am writing to you, mothers, because you know him who has appeared to you, and who has touched you, and whose name you have heard. 1/6 I am writing to you, little children, because you know him who has appeared to you, and who has touched you, and whose name you have heard. 1/7 I am writing to you, fathers, because you know him who has appeared to you, and who has touched you, and whose name you have heard. 1/8 I am writing to you, young men, because you know him who has appeared to you, and who has touched you, and whose name you have heard. 1/9 I am writing to you, mothers, because you know him who has appeared to you, and who has touched you, and whose name you have heard. 1/10 I am writing to you, little children, because you know him who has appeared to you, and who has touched you, and whose name you have heard.

3/1 See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God, and so we are. But the reason why the world does not know us is that it has not seen him who came in the flesh. 3/2 What love we have received from the Father, that we should be called children of God, and so we are. But the reason why the world does not know us is that it has not seen him who came in the flesh. 3/3 See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God, and so we are. But the reason why the world does not know us is that it has not seen him who came in the flesh.

4/1 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are of God; for many false prophets have gone out into the world. 2 By this you know the Spirit of God: every one who confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God. 3 And every one who does not confess this, he is the spirit of the antichrist, of which you heard that it was coming, and now it is in the world already.

5/1 Every one who believes that Jesus is the Christ is a child of God, and everyone who loves the parent loves the child. 2 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. 3 For whoever is born of God overcomes the world, and this is the victory that overcomes the world, our faith. 4 Who is it that overcomes the world but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

Topics & Concepts

15 Do not love the world or the things of the world. For if any one loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. 16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the pride of life, is not of the Father who is in us, but of the world that passes away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of God abides forever.

18 Children, it is the last hour, and as you hear that antichrist is coming, so now antichrists have come; therefore we know their spirit is the last hour. 19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us; but they went out, that it might be plain that they were not of us.

20 But you have been anointed by the Holy One, and you all know. 21 I write to you so that you do not know the truth, but you do know it, and know that no lie is of the truth. 22 Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, who denies the Father and the Son. 23 No one who denies the Son has the Father; he who confesses the Son has the Father also. 24 Let what you heard from the beginning abide in you. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, then you will abide in the Son and in the Father who sent him. 25 And this is what he has promised us, eternal life, and God abides in him.

19 By this we shall know that we are of the truth, and reassure our hearts before him. 20 whenever our hearts condemn us, for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything. 21 Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence before God; 22 and we receive from him whatever we ask, because we keep his commandments and do what he pleases him. 23 And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of the Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. 24 All who keep his commandments abide in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit which he has given us.

17 In this is love perfected with us, that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so are we in this world. 18 There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and he who fears is not perfected in love. 19 We love, because he first loved us. 20 If any one says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, cannot love God whom he has not seen. 21 And this commandment we have from him, that he who loves God should love his brother also.

18 We know that any one born of God does not sin, but He who was born of God keeps him, and the evil one does not touch him.

19 We know that we are of God, and the whole world is in the power of the evil one.

20 And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, to know him who is true; and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ, who is the true God and eternal life. 21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols.
