Heb 1:1 In many and various ways God spoke of old to our fathers by the prophets; 2 but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world. 3 He reflects the glory of God and bears the very stamp of his nature, upholding the universe by his word of power. When he had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, 4 having become as much superior to angels as the name he has obtained is more excellent than theirs.

Hebrews 1:1-4

1/1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ who are at Colossae: Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ, who is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of all creation; 16 for in him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or authorities—all things were created through him and for him. 17 He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. 18 He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the first-born from the dead, and in everything he might be pre-eminent. 19 For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell. 20 and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross. 21 And you, who once were estranged and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, 22 he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and without blemish to himself in all good works. 23 He has emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in the likeness of men and being found in the appearance of men; he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. 24 Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above all names, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of the Father forever and ever. Amen. 25 Therefore, since we have these things, let us leave behind us the elementary teachings of the Jews and let us go on to maturity, not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works and of the law of works, but rather, building on this foundation: faith, hope, and love. 26 For love, which has been preached to every creature under heaven, and of which I, Paul, became a minister. 27 Now I rejoice in your sufferings for you, and in my flesh I complete what is lacking of Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, the church, 28 of which I became a minister according to the divine office which was made manifest to me for you, to make the word of God known, 26 the mystery hidden for ages and centuries but now made manifest to his saints. To them God chose to make known how among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. 28 Him we proclaim, warning every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, so that we may present every man mature in Christ. 29 I tell you all about my affairs; he is my fellow prisoner greets you, cousin of Barnabas (concerning whom we received instructions—if he receive him), 31 and Jesus who is called Justus. These are the only men of the kind among my fellow workers for the gospel, and they have been a comfort to me. 32 Give my greetings to the brethren at Laodicea, and to Nymphas and the church in her house. 36 And when this letter has been read among you, have it read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and see that you read also the letter from Laodicea. 17 And say to Archippus, "See that you fulfill the ministry which you have received in the Lord." 18 I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand. Remember my letters. Grace be with you.

For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily, 19 and you have come to fullness of life, because you are united to him, who is the image of the Father, the one who is the Father's only-begotten Son, who is full of grace and truth. 20 In him also all things were created, by him and for him. In him also we lived and moved and had our being, because we were created by him and for him. 21 He is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of the Father, who has not taken on himself the nature of being deified with God, but who has become like us, emptying himself, by putting on the likeness of a slave, being born in the likeness of men and being found in the appearance of men; he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. 22 Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above all names, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of the Father forever and ever. Amen. 23 Therefore, since we have these things, let us leave behind us the elementary teachings of the Jews and let us go on to maturity, not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works and of the law of works, but rather, building on this foundation: faith, hope, and love. 24 For love, which has been preached to every creature under heaven, and of which I, Paul, became a minister. 25 Now I rejoice in your sufferings for you, and in my flesh I complete what is lacking of Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, the church, 26 of which I became a minister according to the divine office which was made manifest to me for you, to make the word of God known, 26 the mystery hidden for ages and centuries but now made manifest to his saints. To them God chose to make known how among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. 28 Him we proclaim, warning every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, so that we may present every man mature in Christ. 29 I tell you all about my affairs; he is my fellow prisoner greets you, cousin of Barnabas (concerning whom we received instructions—if he receive him), 31 and Jesus who is called Justus. These are the only men of the kind among my fellow workers for the gospel, and they have been a comfort to me. 32 Give my greetings to the brethren at Laodicea, and to Nymphas and the church in her house. 36 And when this letter has been read among you, have it read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and see that you read also the letter from Laodicea. 17 And say to Archippus, "See that you fulfill the ministry which you have received in the Lord." 18 I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand. Remember my letters. Grace be with you.

20 and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross. 21 And you, who once were estranged and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, 22 he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and without blemish to himself in all good works. 23 He has emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in the likeness of men and being found in the appearance of men; he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. 24 Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above all names, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of the Father forever and ever. Galatians

1:1 Paul an apostle—not from men nor through man, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father...

1:2 I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting him who called you in the grace of Christ and turning to a different gospel...

1:3 For I am amazed that you are so quickly deserting him who called you in the grace of Christ and turning to a different gospel...

1:4 And they glorified God because of me.

1:5 Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas, and remained with him fifteen days...

1:6 And from those who were reputed to be something (what God makes no difference to me, God shows no partiality).

1:7 For all who rely on works of the law are under a curse, for it is written, "Cursed be every one who does not abide by all things written in the book of the law, and do them."

1:8 I have become as much superior to angels as the name he has obtained is more excellent than theirs.

1:9 For I am amazed that you are so quickly deserting him who called you in the grace of Christ and turning to a different gospel...

1:10 For I am amazed that you are so quickly deserting him who called you in the grace of Christ and turning to a different gospel...

1:11 For I would have you know, brethren, that the gospel which was preached by me is not man's gospel.

1:12 I did not receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but it came through a revelation of Jesus Christ.

1:13 For you have heard of my former life in Judaism, how I persecuted the church of God violently and tried to destroy it.

1:14 And I advanced in Judaism beyond many of my own age among my people, so extremely so that I far surpassed them in traditions of my fathers.

1:15 But when Cephas came to Antioch I opposed him to his face, because he stood condemned.

1:16 For before certain men came from James, he ate with them, but when they came he drew back and separated himself, fearing the circumcision party.

1:17 And I, though I was not a Jew, but as one of them, stood with them, fearing the circumcision party.

1:18 But I, though I was not a Jew, but as one of them, stood with them, fearing the circumcision party.

1:19 For I was born, and had called me through his grace, I was pleased to reveal his Son to me, in order that I might preach him among the Gentiles, I did not confer with flesh and blood.

1:20 For I was pleased to reveal his Son to me, in order that I might preach him among the Gentiles, I did not confer with flesh and blood.

1:21 I did not go up to Jerusalem to confer with flesh and blood, nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me.
