4:1 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are of God; for many false prophets have gone out into the world. 2 By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit which confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, 3 and every spirit which does not confess Jesus is not of God. This is the spirit of antichrist, of which you heard that it was coming, and now it is in the world already.

Brief Introductions

1 Jn Structure
Thought Blocks

1:1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon and touched with our hands, concerning the word of life—2 the life was made manifest, and we saw it, and testify to it, and proclaim to you the eternal life which was with the Father and was made manifest to us—3 that which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you may have fellowship with us; and our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. 4 And we are writing this that our joy may be complete.

5 This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him is no darkness at all. 6 If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we do not live according to the truth; 7 but who is the light, as he is in the light, we fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus which cleanses us from all sin. 8 If we say we love him and do not love our brother, we deceive ourselves, and the blood of Jesus our Lord does not cleanse us. 9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 10 If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and our Father does not receive us.

11 Writing this to you so that you will not be deceived by anyone who does sin, we know that anyone who sins does not have the Father, Jesus Christ who came in the flesh, but also for the sins of the world. 12 Therefore, if anyone denies that Jesus Christ came in the flesh, that person's soul is not in God, and anyone who does this is the deceiver and the liar, and his works are false. 13 Anyone who denies the Father and the Son, God will not receive him, and anyone who receives him receives his wages. 14 Anyone who confesses that Jesus Christ came in the flesh has the Father and the Son, and the Father and the Son who are with him, and he will receive the wages of eternal life. 15 Anyone who denies the Father and the Son, God will not receive him, and anyone who receives him receives his wages. 16 Anyone who receives a witness who does not testify that Jesus Christ came in the flesh, that person's wages are false, and he will receive the wages of eternal death. 17 Anyone who testifies that Jesus Christ came in the flesh has the Father and the Son, and the Father and the Son who are with him, and he will receive the wages of eternal life. 18 Anyone who denies the Father and the Son, God will not receive him, and anyone who receives him receives his wages. 19 Anyone who receives a witness who does not testify that Jesus Christ came in the flesh, that person's wages are false, and he will receive the wages of eternal death. 20 Anyone who testifies that Jesus Christ came in the flesh has the Father and the Son, and the Father and the Son who are with him, and he will receive the wages of eternal life.

21 Beloved, I am writing you no new commandment, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning; the old commandment is the word which you have heard. 22 Yet I am writing you a new commandment, which is true in him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining. 23 He who says he is in the light and hates his brother is in the darkness still. 24 He who loves his brother abides in the light, and in it there is no cause for stumbling. 25 But he who hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

26 I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven for his sake. 27 I am writing to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. I write to you, children, because you know the Father. 28 I write to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

29 Do not love the world or the things in the world. If any one loves the world, love for the Father is not in him. 30 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the pride of life, is not of the Father but is of the world. 31 And the world passes away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of God abides for ever.

32 Children, it is the last hour; and as you have heard that antichrist is coming, so now many antichrists have come; therefore we know that it is the last hour. 33 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us; but they went out, that it might be plain that they all are not of us.

34 But you have been anointed by the Holy One, and you all know. 35 I write to you, not because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and know that no lie is of the truth. 36 Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, he who denies the Father and the Son. 37 No one who denies the Son has the Father. He who confesses the Son has the Father also. 38 Let what you heard from the beginning abide in you. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, then you will abide in the Son and in the Father. 39 And this is what he has promised us, eternal life.

40 I write this to you about those who would deceive you; 41 but the anointing which you received from him abides in you, and you have no need that any one should teach you; as his anointing teaches you about everything, and is true, and is no lie, just as it has taught you, abide in him.

42 And now, little children, abide in him, so that when he appears we may have confidence and not shrink from him in shame at his coming. 43 If you know that he is righteous, you may be sure that every one who does right is born of him.

44 See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. 45 Beloved, we are God's children now; it does not yet appear what we shall be, but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. 46 And every one who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure.

47 Every one who commits sin is guilty of lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. 48 You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. 49 No one who abides in him sins; no one who sins has either seen him or known him. 50 Little children, let no one deceive you. He who does right is righteous, as he is righteous. 51 He who commits sin is of the devil; for the devil has sinned from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. 52 No one born of God commits sin; for God's nature abides in him, and he cannot sin because he is born of God. 53 By this it may be seen who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not do right is not of God, nor he who does not love his brother.

54 For this is the message which you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. 55 And not be like Cain who was of the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own deeds were evil and his brother's righteous. 56 Do not wonder, brethren, that the world hates you. 57 We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brethren. He who does not love abides in death. 58 Any one who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. 59 By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us; and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. 60 But if any one has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? 61 Little children, let us not love in word or speech but in deed and in truth.

62 By this we shall know that we are of the truth, and reassure our hearts before him 63 whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything. 64 Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence before God; 65 and we receive from him whatever we ask, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. 66 And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. 67 All who keep his commandments abide in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit which he has given us.

68 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are of God; for many false prophets have gone out into the world. 69 By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit which confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, 70 and every spirit which does not confess Jesus is not of God. This is the spirit of antichrist, of which you heard that it was coming, and now it is in the world already.

71 Little children, you are of God, and have overcome them; for he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. 72 They are of the world, therefore what they say is of the world, and the world listens to them. 73 We are of God. Whoever knows God listens to us, and he who is not of God does not listen to us. By this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

74 Beloved, let us love one another; for love is of God, and he who loves is born of God and knows God. 75 He who does not love does not know God; for God is love. 76 In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. 77 In this is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the expiation for our sins. 78 Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. 79 No man has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us.

80 By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his own Spirit. 81 And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son as the Savior of the world. 82 Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. 83 So we know and believe the love God has for us. God is love, and he who abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him.

84 In this is love perfected with us, that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so are we in this world. 85 There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and he who fears is not perfected in love. 86 We love, because he first loved us. 87 If any one says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, cannot love God whom he has not seen. 88 And this commandment we have from him, that he who loves God should love his brother also.

89 Every one who believes that Jesus is the Christ is a child of God, and every one who loves the parent loves the child. 90 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. 91 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. 92 For whatever is born of God overcomes the world; and this is the victory that overcomes the world, our faith. 93 Who is it that overcomes the world but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

94 This is he who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ, not with the water only but with the water and the blood. 95 And the Spirit is the witness, because the Spirit is the truth. 96 There are three witnesses, the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and these three agree. 97 If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater; for this is the testimony of God that he has borne witness to his Son. 98 He who believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. He who does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne to his Son. 99 And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. 100 He who has the Son has life; he who has not the Son of God has no life.

101 I write this to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life. 102 And this is the confidence which we have in him, that if we ask anything according to his will he hears us. 103 And if we know that he hears us in whatever we ask, we know that we have obtained the requests made of him. 104 If any one sees his brother committing what is not a mortal sin, he will ask, and God will give him life for those whose sin is not mortal. There is sin which is mortal; I do not say that one is to pray for that. 105 All wrongdoing is sin, but there is sin which is not mortal.

106 We know that any one born of God does not sin, but He who was born of God keeps him, and the evil one does not touch him.

107 We know that we are of God, and the whole world is in the power of the evil one.

108 And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, to know him who is true; and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and eternal life. 109 Little children, keep yourselves from idols.

1: That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon and touched with our hands, concerning the word of life—2 the life was made manifest, and we saw it, and testify to it, and proclaim to you the eternal life which was with the Father and was made manifest to us—3 that which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you may have fellowship with us; and our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. 4 And we are writing this that our joy may be complete.

5 This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him is no darkness at all. 6 If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not live according to the truth; 7 but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. 8 If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 10 If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

2: My little children, I am writing this to you so that you may not sin; but if any one does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; 2 and he is the expiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And by this we may be sure that we know him, if we keep his commandments. 4 He who says "I know him" but disobeys his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him; 5 but whoever keeps his word, in him truly love for God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: 6 he who says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked.

7 Beloved, I am writing you no new commandment, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning; the old commandment is the word which you have heard. 8 Yet I am writing you a new commandment, which is true in him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining. 9 He who says he is in the light and hates his brother is in the darkness still. 10 He who loves his brother abides in the light, and in it there is no cause for stumbling. 11 But he who hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

I write to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

15 Do not love the world or the things in the world. If any one loves the world, love for the Father is not in him. 16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the pride of life, is not of the Father but is of the world. 17 And the world passes away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of God abides for ever.

5: Every one who believes that Jesus is the Christ is a child of God, and every one who loves the parent loves the child. 2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. 3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. 4 For whatever is born of God overcomes the world; and this is the victory that overcomes the world, our faith. 5 Who is it that overcomes the world but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 This is he who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ, not with the water only but with the water and the blood. 7 And the Spirit is the witness, because the Spirit is the truth. 8 There are three witnesses, the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and these three agree. 9 If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater; for this is the testimony of God that he has borne witness to his Son. 10 He who believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. He who does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne to his Son. 11 And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. 12 He who has the Son has life; he who has not the Son of God has not life.

13 I write this to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life. 14 And this is the confidence which we have in him, that if we ask anything according to his will he hears us. 15 And if we know that he hears us in whatever we ask, we know that we have obtained the requests made of him. 16 If any one sees his brother committing what is not a mortal sin, he will ask, and God will give him life for those whose sin is not mortal. There is sin which is mortal; I do not say that one is to pray for that. 17 All wrongdoing is sin, but there is sin which is not mortal.

18 We know that any one born of God does not sin, but He who was born of God keeps him, and the evil one does not touch him.

19 We know that we are of God, and the whole world is in the power of the evil one.

20 And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, to know him who is true; and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and eternal life. 21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols.

1:1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon and touched with our hands, concerning the word of life—2 the life was made manifest and we saw it, and testify to it, and proclaim to you the eternal life which was with the Father and was made manifest to us—3 that which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you may have fellowship with us; and our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. 4 And we are writing this that our joy may be complete.

5 This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him is no darkness at all. 6 If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not live according to the truth; 7 but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. 8 If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 10 If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

2:1 My little children, I am writing this to you so that you may not sin; but if any one does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; 2 and he is the expiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And by this we may be sure that we know him, if we keep his commandments. 4 He who says "I know him" but disobeys his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him; 5 but whoever keeps his word, in him truly love for God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: 6 he who says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked.

7 Beloved, I am writing you no new commandment, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning; the old commandment is the word which you have heard. 8 Yet I am writing you a new commandment, which is true in him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining. 9 He who says he is in the light and hates his brother is in the darkness still. 10 He who loves his brother abides in the light, and in it there is no cause for stumbling. 11 But he who hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

12 I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven for his sake. 13 I am writing to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. I write to you, children, because you know the Father. 14 I write to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

15 Do not love the world or the things in the world. If any one loves the world, love for the Father is not in him. 16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the pride of life, is not of the Father but is of the world. 17 And the world passes away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of God abides for ever.

18 Children, it is the last hour; and as you have heard that antichrist is coming, so now many antichrists have come; therefore we know that it is the last hour. 19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us; but they went out, that it might be plain that they all are not of us.

20 But you have been anointed by the Holy One, and you all know. 21 I write to you, not because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and know that no lie is of the truth. 22 Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, he who denies the Father and the Son. 23 No one who denies the Son has the Father. He who confesses the Son has the Father also. 24 Let what you heard from the beginning abide in you. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, then you will abide in the Son and in the Father. 25 And this is what he has promised us, eternal life.

26 I write this to you about those who would deceive you; 27 but the anointing which you received from him abides in you, and you have no need that any one should teach you; as his anointing teaches you about everything, and is true, and is no lie, just as it has taught you, abide in him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him, so that when he appears we may have confidence and not shrink from him in shame at his coming. 29 If you know that he is righteous, you may be sure that every one who does right is born of him.

3:1 See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. 2 Beloved, we are God's children now; it does not yet appear what we shall be, but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. 3 And every one who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure.

4 Every one who commits sin is guilty of lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. 5 You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. 6 No one who abides in him sins; no one who sins has either seen him or known him. 7 Little children, let no one deceive you. He who does right is righteous, as he is righteous. 8 He who commits sin is of the devil; for the devil has sinned from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. 9 No one born of God commits sin; for God's nature abides in him, and he cannot sin because he is born of God. 10 By this it may be seen who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not do right is not of God, nor he who does not love his brother.

11 For this is the message which you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another, 12 and not be like Cain who was of the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own deeds were evil and his brother's righteous. 13 Do not wonder, brethren, that the world hates you. 14 We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brethren. He who does not love abides in death. 15 Any one who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. 16 By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us; and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. 17 But if any one has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? 18 Little children, let us not love in word or speech but in deed and in truth.

19 By this we shall know that we are of the truth, and reassure our hearts before him 20 whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything. 21 Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence before God; 22 and we receive from him whatever we ask, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. 23 And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. 24 All who keep his commandments abide in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit which he has given us.

4:1 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are of God; for many false prophets have gone out into the world. 2 By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit which confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, 3 and every spirit which does not confess Jesus is not of God. This is the spirit of antichrist, of which you heard that it was coming, and now it is in the world already.

1 JOHN 4:1-3

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, To the saints who are also faithful in Christ Jesus: 2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every blessing in the heavenly places, 4 even as he loved us in him before the foundation of the world, that he would be holy and blameless before him. 5 His desire was to love to his sons through Jesus Christ, according to the purpose of his will, 6 to the praise of his glorious grace which he freely bestowed on us in the beloved. 7 In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace 8 which he lavished upon us, 9 for he has made known to us in all wisdom and insight the mystery of his will, according to his purpose which he set forth in Christ 10 as a plan for the fulness of time, to unite all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth.

11 In him, according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to the counsel of his will, 12 we who first hoped in Christ have been destined and appointed to live for the praise of his glory. 13 In him you also, who have heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and have believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, 14 which is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it, to the praise of his glory.

15 For this reason, because I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, 16 I do not cease to give thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers, 17 that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of him, 18 that having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints, 19 and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power in us who believe, according to the working of his great might, 20 which he accomplished in Christ when he raised him from the dead and made him sit at his right hand in the heavenly places, 21 far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in that which is to come, 22 and he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, 23 which is his body, the fulness of him who fills all in all.

24 And you who have made alive, when you were dead through the trespasses and sins, 25 in which you once walked, following the course of this world, following the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work in the sons of disobedience. 26 Among those who all once lived in the passion of their flesh, following the desires of body and mind, and so we were by nature children of wrath, like the rest of mankind. 27 But God, who is rich in mercy, out of the great love with which he loved us, 28 even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been saved), 29 and raised us up with him, and made us sit with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, 7 that in the coming ages he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. 8 For by grace you have been saved, and that not by works, lest anyone should boast. 9 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared for us to walk in. 10 Therefore remember that at one time you Gentiles in the flesh, called the uncircumcision by what is called the circumcision, which is made in the flesh by hands—11 remember that you were at that time separated from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world. 12 But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near in the blood of Christ. 13 For he is our peace, who has made us one, and has broken down the dividing wall of hostility 14 by abolishing in his flesh the law of commandments and ordinances, that he might create in himself one man in place of the two, so making peace, 15 and reconcile us both to God in one body through the cross, thereby bringing the hostility to an end. 16 And he is and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near, 17 for through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father. 18 So then you are no longer strangers and sojourners, but you are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, 19 built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the cornerstone, in whom the whole structure is joined together and grows into a holy temple in the Lord, 20 in whom you also are built into it for a dwelling place of God in the Spirit.

31 For this reason I, Paul, a prisoner for Christ Jesus on behalf of you Gentiles—2 assuming that you have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for you, 3 how the mystery was made known to me in revelation, as I have written briefly. 4 When you read you can perceive my insight into the mystery of Christ, which was not made known to the sons of men in generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit. 5 That is, how the Gentiles are fellow heirs, members of the same body, and partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel, and upwards still in love.

with the Spirit, 19 addressing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the Lord with all your heart, 20 always and for everything giving thanks in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to God the Father.

21 Be subject to one another out of reverence for Christ. 22 Wives, be subject to your husbands, as in the Lord. 23 For the husband is the head of the church, his body, and himself is Savior. 24 As the church is subject to Christ, so let wives also be subject in everything to their husbands. 25 Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her, 26 that he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, 27 that he might present the church to himself in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish. 28 Even so husbands should let every one of you love his neighbor as himself. 29 For one who loves himself does not love his neighbor, for love is the riches of his character, by which he may speak the truth with his neighbor. 30 For an angry man is not in agreement with his neighbor, for Christ is the peace of God, which is being reached in the heart through the righteousness of Jesus Christ. 31 Therefore do not let anyone take your peace, for Christ Jesus has died for us, that he might purify to himself a peculiar people, zealous of good deeds, who are obedient to the word of life. 32 Therefore do not let anyone take your peace, for Christ Jesus has died for us, that he might purify to himself a peculiar people, zealous of good deeds, who are obedient to the word of life. 32 Therefore do not let anyone take your peace, for Christ Jesus has died for us, that he might purify to himself a peculiar people, zealous of good deeds, who are obedient to the word of life.

love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his own body loves himself. 29 For no man ever hates his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, as Christ does the church, 30 because we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones, 31 and he himself cleanses the church by the word, that he might present it to himself in glory, without spot or wrinkle or anything of the kind, but rather let him labor, doing himself up with his word, so that he may be able to give to himself a peculiar people, zealous of good deeds, who are obedient to the word of life. 32 Therefore do not let anyone take your peace, for Christ Jesus has died for us, that he might purify to himself a peculiar people, zealous of good deeds, who are obedient to the word of life.

What Topic? How does it Relate?

Our own words to explain. Not cliché.

By using a cliché, you're telling your reader that you lack originality, making them want to yawn and stop reading your paper. Clichés make your writing and argument interchangeable with anybody else's. Make sure that your argument and writing are specific to you and your writing task. Clichés are vague.

Topics & Concepts

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, 2 To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ who are at Laodicea: Grace to you and peace from our Father who is in heaven. 3 We always thank God, the Father our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you, because we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love which you have for all the saints, 5 because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. Of this you have heard before in the word of the truth, the gospel which has come to you, and indeed in the whole world it is bearing fruit and growing—so among yourselves, from the day you heard and understood the grace of God in truth, 7 as you learned it from Ephraim our beloved fellow servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on our behalf 8 and has made known to us your love in the Spirit.

9 And so, from the day we heard of it, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, 10 so as to lead a life worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God. 11 May you be strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy, 12 giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified us to share in the inheritance of the saints in light. 13 He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, 14 in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

15 He is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of all creation; 16 for in him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or authorities—all things were created through him and for him. 17 He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. 18 He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the first-born from the dead, and in everything he might be pre-eminent. 19 For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell.

20 and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross.

21 And you, who once were estranged and hostile to him, by his death, you were reconciled to him through the blood of his cross; 22 he has now made us alive together with himself in heaven, where he is seated at the right hand of the Father. 23 In him we were circumcised with the circumcision of the heart, without hands, by putting off the body of the flesh with its passions and desires; 24 and now you were raised with him through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead. 25 Do not let anyone lead you into captivity by philosophy and vain deceit, according to the tradition of men, which has no value in checking the indulgence of the flesh.

26 Therefore, if anyone preaches a gospel other than the one you have received, let God curse him. 27 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who does not let us be put to shame, but who always stands with us in every trial. 28 For he who is of God, he who has the Father with him, he who has seen the Father, he who has heard the Father's voice, he who has touched him, he who has seen his face, he who has been with him, he who has been glorified with him, he who has heard his voice, he who has seen his face, he who has been with him, he who has been glorified with him, he who has heard his voice, he who has seen his face, he who has been with him, he who has been glorified with him.

29 Him we proclaim, warning every man to keep away from the worship of idols. To whom God chose to make known how among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. 30 Him we proclaim, warning every man to keep away from the worship of idols. To whom God chose to make known how among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. 30 Him we proclaim, warning every man to keep away from the worship of idols. To whom God chose to make known how among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

31 If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. 32 Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. 33 For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. 34 When Christ who is our life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory.

35 Do not let anyone lead you into captivity by philosophy and vain deceit, according to the tradition of men, which has no value in checking the indulgence of the flesh.

36 Therefore, if anyone preaches a gospel other than the one you have received, let God curse him. 37 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who does not let us be put to shame, but who always stands with us in every trial. 38 For he who is of God, he who has the Father with him, he who has seen the Father, he who has heard the Father's voice, he who has touched him, he who has seen his face, he who has been with him, he who has been glorified with him, he who has heard his voice, he who has seen his face, he who has been with him, he who has been glorified with him.

39 Him we proclaim, warning every man to keep away from the worship of idols. To whom God chose to make known how among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. 40 Him we proclaim, warning every man to keep away from the worship of idols. To whom God chose to make known how among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

41 I say in order that no one may delude you with beguiling speech. 42 For though I am absent in body, yet I am with you in spirit, rejoicing to see your good order and the firmness of your faith in Christ.

43 As therefore you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so live in him, 44 rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.

45 See to it that no one makes a prey of you by philosophy and empty deceit, according to human tradition, according to the elemental spirits of the universe, and not according to Christ. 46 And let no one take your peace by word. 47 For we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, who has now made us alive together with himself in heaven, where he is seated at the right hand of the Father. 48 In him we were circumcised with the circumcision of the heart, without hands, by putting off the body of the flesh with its passions and desires; 49 and now you were raised with him through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead. 50 Do not let anyone lead you into captivity by philosophy and vain deceit, according to the tradition of men, which has no value in checking the indulgence of the flesh.

51 Therefore, if anyone preaches a gospel other than the one you have received, let God curse him. 52 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who does not let us be put to shame, but who always stands with us in every trial. 53 For he who is of God, he who has the Father with him, he who has seen the Father, he who has heard the Father's voice, he who has touched him, he who has seen his face, he who has been with him, he who has been glorified with him, he who has heard his voice, he who has seen his face, he who has been with him, he who has been glorified with him.

1 John
1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, 2 To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ who are at Laodicea: Grace to you and peace from our Father.
3 We always thank God, the Father, our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you, because we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love which you have for all the saints, 5 because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. Of this you have heard before in the word of the truth, the gospel which has come to you, and indeed in the whole world it is bearing fruit and growing—so among yourselves, from the day you heard and understood the grace of God in truth, 7 as you learned it from Epaphras our beloved fellow servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on our behalf 8 and has made known to us your love in the Spirit.
9 And so, from the day we heard of it, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, 10 so that you may lead a life worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God. 11 May you be strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy, 12 giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified us to share in the inheritance of the saints in light. 13 He has delivered us from the dominion of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, 14 in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.
15 He is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of all creation, 16 for in him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or authorities—all things were created through him and for him. 17 He is before all things, and in him all things hold together.
18 He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything he might be pre-eminent. 19 For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell.
20 and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross.

1 John
2 And you, who once were estranged and hostile to him, by his death, you were reconciled to him by the blood of his cross, 17 In him we were circumcised without hands, by putting off the body of the flesh, which we were buried with him through baptism, 18 in which you were also raised with him through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead, 19 and you have come to fullness of life in him, who is the head of all rule and authority.
24 Now I rejoice in my sufferings for you, and in my flesh I complete what is lacking to the church, 25 of which I became a minister according to the divine office which was to me for you, to make the word of God known, 26 the mystery hidden for ages and centuries but now made manifest to his saints. To them God chose to make known how among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. 28 Him we proclaim, warning every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man mature in Christ. 29 I toil, striving with all the energy which mightily inspires within me.
22 For I want you to know how greatly I love you, and for those at Laodicea, and who have not seen my face, 2 that their hearts may be encouraged as they are knit together, to have all the riches of assured standing and the knowledge of God's mystery of Christ, 3 in whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.
4 I say this in order that no one may delude you with beguiling speech. 5 For though I am absent in body, yet I am with you in spirit, rejoicing to see your good order and the firmness of your faith in Christ.
6 As therefore you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so live in him, 7 rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.
8 See to it that no one makes a prey of you by philosophy and empty deceit, according to human tradition, according to the elemental spirits of the universe, and not according to Christ, 9

A goal-setting process involves creating milestones for yourself and building a strategy to help you stick to achieving these goals. Goal-setting allows you to identify a new objective, skill or task you'd like to accomplish and establish a clear path using smaller tasks to help reach your end goal.

1 John RSV

1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and touched with our hands, concerning the life—2 the life was made manifest, and we have seen it, and testify it, and proclaim to you eternal life which was with the Father and made manifest to us—3 that which we have heard and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you may have fellowship with us; and our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. 4 And we are writing this that our joy may be complete.

5 This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him is no darkness at all. 6 If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not live according to the truth, but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. 7 If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 8 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 9 If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

2 My little children, I am writing this to you so that you may not sin; but if any one does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. 3 and he is the expiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And by this we may be sure that we know him, if we keep his commandments. 4 He who says "I know him" but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him; 5 but whoever keeps his word, in him truly love for God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: 6 he who says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked.

7 Beloved, I am writing you no new commandment, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning: the old commandment is the word which you have heard. 8 Yet I am writing you a new commandment, which is true in him and true, and is no lie, just as that which he has promised us, and God abides in him.

19 By this we shall know that we are of the truth, and reassure our hearts before him 20 whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything. 21 Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence before God; 22 and we receive from him whatever we ask, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. 23 And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. 24 All who keep his commandments abide in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit which he has given us.

25 And this is what he has promised us, eternal life.

16 I write this to you about those who would deceive you, 27 but the anointing which you received from him abides in you, and you have no need that any one should teach you; as his anointing teaches you about everything, and is true, and is no lie, just as that which he has promised us, and God abides in him.

18 And now, little children, abide in him, so that when he appears we may have confidence and not shrink from him in shame at his coming. 19 If you know that he is righteous, you may be sure that every one who does right is born of him.

1/1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and touched with our hands, concerning the life which was made manifest, and we have seen, and testify, and proclaim to you, and declare to you, and write to you, that you may know the life which was with the Father and made manifest to us—that which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you may have fellowship with us; and our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. 2 And we are writing this that our joy may be complete. 3 This is the message which we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him is no darkness at all. 4 If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not live according to the truth, but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. 5 If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 6 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 7 If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and he does not live in us. 8 My little children, I am writing this to you so that you may not sin; but if any one does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; 9 and he is the expiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world. 10 And by this we may be sure that we know him, if we keep his commandments. 11 He who says "I know him" but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him; 12 but whoever keeps his word, in him truly love for God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: 13 he who says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. 14 Beloved, I am writing you no new commandment, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning: the old commandment is the word which you have heard. 15 Yet I am writing you a new commandment, which is true in him and in us, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining. 16 He who says he is in the light and hates his brother is in the darkness still. 17 He who loves his brother abides in the light, and in it there is no cause for stumbling. 18 But he who hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes. 19 I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven for his sake. 20 I am writing to you, because you do not know the one who is coming in the flesh; but you know the one who is writing to you, so that you may not receive his greeting into your homes. 21 Who is the liar who does not confess Jesus Christ who came in the flesh? This is the spirit of antichrist, of which you heard that it was coming, and now it is in the world already. 22 Every one who commits sin is guilty of lawlessness, and you have overcome the evil one. 23 Do not love the world or the things of the world. If any one loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. 24 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the pride of life, is not of the Father who is in us, but he who does the will of God abides forever. 25 Children, it is the last hour, and as you hear that antichrist is coming, so now antichrists have come; therefore we know it is the last hour. 26 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us; but went out, that it might be plain that they are not of us. 27 But you have been anointed by the One, and you all know. 28 I write to you because you do not know the truth, but you know it, and know that no lie is of the truth. 29 Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, who denies the Father and the Son. 30 No one who denies the Son has the Father; he who confesses the Son has the Father also. 31 Let what you heard from the beginning abide in you. If you do not receive what you heard from the beginning, you will not receive the Son and the Father who are coming into the world. 32 And this is what he has promised us, eternal life, and God abides in him. 33 By this we shall know that we are of the truth, and reassure our hearts before him 34 whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything. 35 Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence before God; 36 and we receive from him whatever we ask, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. 37 And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. 38 All who keep his commandments abide in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit which he has given us. 39 If you know that he is righteous, you may be sure that every one who does right is born of him. 40 We know that any one born of God does not sin, but He who was born of God keeps him, and the evil one does not touch him. 41 We know that we are of God, and the whole world is in the power of the evil one. 42 And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, to know him who is true; and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ, who is the true God and eternal life. 43 Little children, keep yourselves from idols.

TB Goal Building

Chap 2

2:1 My little children, I am writing this to you so that you may not sin; but if any one does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; 2 and he is the expiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And by this we may be sure that we know him, if we keep his commandments. 4 He who says "I know him" but disobeys his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him; 5 but whoever keeps his word, in him truly love for God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: 6 he who says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked.

7 Beloved, I am writing you no new commandment, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning; the old commandment is the word which you have heard. 8 Yet I am writing you a new commandment, which is true in him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining. 9 He who says he is in the light and hates his brother is in the darkness still. 10 He who loves his brother abides in the light, and in it there is no cause for stumbling. 11 But he who hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

Chap 1

1:1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon and touched with our hands, concerning the word of life—2 the life was made manifest, and we saw it, and testify to it, and proclaim to you the eternal life which was with the Father and was made manifest to us—3 that which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you may have fellowship with us; and our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. 4 And we are writing this that our joy may be complete.

5 This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him is no darkness at all. 6 If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not live according to the truth; 7 but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. 8 If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 10 If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

Summary of 1 JN 4.1-3

God has equipped me by Knowing His LIFE to test the spirits

1:1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon and touched with our hands, concerning the word of life—2 the life was made manifest, and we saw it, and testify to it, and proclaim to you the eternal life which was with the Father and was made manifest to us—3 that which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you may have fellowship with us; and our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. 4 And we are writing this that our joy may be complete.

5 This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him is no darkness at all. 6 If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not live according to the truth; 7 but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. 8 If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 10 If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

2:1 My little children, I am writing this to you so that you may not sin; but if any one does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; 2 and he is the expiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And by this we may be sure that we know him, if we keep his commandments. 4 He who says “I know him” but disobeys his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him; 5 but whoever keeps his word, in him truly love for God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: 6 he who says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked.

7 Beloved, I am writing you no new commandment, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning; the old commandment is the word which you have heard. 8 Yet I am writing you a new commandment, which is true in him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining. 9 He who says he is in the light and hates his brother is in the darkness still. 10 He who loves his brother abides in the light, and in it there is no cause for stumbling. 11 But he who hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

12 I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven for his sake. 13 I am writing to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. I write to you, children, because you know the Father. 14 I write to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

15 Do not love the world or the things in the world. If any one loves the world, love for the Father is not in him. 16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the pride of life, is not of the Father but is of the world. 17 And the world passes away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of God abides for ever.

18 Children, it is the last hour; and as you have heard that antichrist is coming, so now many antichrists have come; therefore we know that it is the last hour. 19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us; but they went out, that it might be plain that they all are not of us.

20 But you have been anointed by the Holy One, and you all know. 21 I write to you, not because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and know that no lie is of the truth. 22 Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, he who denies the Father and the Son. 23 No one who denies the Son has the Father. He who confesses the Son has the Father also. 24 Let what you heard from the beginning abide in you. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, then you will abide in the Son and in the Father. 25 And this is what he has promised us, eternal life.

26 I write this to you about those who would deceive you; 27 but the anointing which you received from him abides in you, and you have no need that any one should teach you; as his anointing teaches you about everything, and is true, and is no lie, just as it has taught you, abide in him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him, so that when he appears we may have confidence and not shrink from him in shame at his coming. 29 If you know that he is righteous, you may be sure that every one who does right is born of him.

3:1 See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. 2 Beloved, we are God’s children now; it does not yet appear what we shall be, but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. 3 And every one who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure.

4 Every one who commits sin is guilty of lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. 5 You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. 6 No one who abides in him sins; no one who sins has either seen him or known him. 7 Little children, let no one deceive you. He who does right is righteous, as he is righteous. 8 He who commits sin is of the devil; for the devil has sinned from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. 9 No one born of God commits sin; for God’s nature abides in him, and he cannot sin because he is born of God. 10 By this it may be seen who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not do right is not of God, nor he who does not love his brother.

11 For this is the message which you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. 12 and not be like Cain who was of the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own deeds were evil and his brother’s righteous. 13 Do not wonder, brethren, that the world hates you. 14 We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brethren. He who does not love abides in death. 15 Any one who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. 16 By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us; and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. 17 But if any one has the world’s goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God’s love abide in him? 18 Little children, let us not love in word or speech but in deed and in truth.

19 By this we shall know that we are of the truth, and reassure our hearts before him 20 whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything. 21 Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence before God; 22 and we receive from him whatever we ask, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. 23 And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. 24 All who keep his commandments abide in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit which he has given us.

4:1 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are of God; for many false prophets have gone out into the world. 2 By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit which confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, 3 and every spirit which does not confess Jesus is not of God. This is the spirit of antichrist, of which you heard that it was coming, and now it is in the world already.

4 Little children, you are of God, and have overcome them; for he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. 5 They are of the world, therefore what they say is of the world, and the world listens to them. 6 We are of God. Whoever knows God listens to us, and he who is not of God does not listen to us. By this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, let us love one another; for love is of God, and he who loves is born of God and knows God. 8 He who does not love does not know God; for God is love. 9 In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. 10 In this is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the expiation for our sins. 11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. 12 No man has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us.

13 By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his own Spirit. 14 And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son as the Savior of the world. 15 Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. 16 So we know and believe the love God has for us. God is love, and he who abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him.

17 In this is love perfected with us, that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so are we in this world. 18 There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and he who fears is not perfected in love. 19 We love, because he first loved us. 20 If any one says, “I love God,” and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, cannot love God whom he has not seen. 21 And this commandment we have from him, that he who loves God should love his brother also.

5:1 Every one who believes that Jesus is the Christ is a child of God, and every one who loves the parent loves the child. 2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. 3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. 4 For whatever is born of God overcomes the world; and this is the victory that overcomes the world, our faith. 5 Who is it that overcomes the world but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 This is he who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ, not with the water only but with the water and the blood. 7 And the Spirit is the witness, because the Spirit is the truth. 8 There are three witnesses, the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and these three agree. 9 If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater; for this is the testimony of God that he has borne witness to his Son. 10 He who believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. He who does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne to his Son. 11 And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. 12 He who has the Son has life; he who has not the Son of God has not life.

13 I write this to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life. 14 And this is the confidence which we have in him, that if we ask anything according to his will he hears us. 15 And if we know that he hears us in whatever we ask, we know that we have obtained the requests made of him. 16 If any one sees his brother committing what is not a mortal sin, he will ask, and God will give him life for those whose sin is not mortal. There is sin which is mortal; I do not say that one is to pray for that. 17 All wrongdoing is sin, but there is sin which is not mortal.

18 We know that any one born of God does not sin, but He who was born of God keeps him, and the evil one does not touch him.

19 We know that we are of God, and the whole world is in the power of the evil one.

20 And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, to know him who is true; and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and eternal life. 21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols.
