4 Little children, you are of God, and have overcome them; for he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. 5 They are of the world, therefore what they say is of the world, and the world listens to them. 6 We are of God. Whoever knows God listens to us, and he who is not of God does not listen to us. By this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

1 JN 4.1-3

1:1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon and touched with our hands, concerning the word of life—2 the life was made manifest, and we saw it, and testify to it, and proclaim to you the eternal life which was with the Father and was made manifest to us—3 that which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you may have fellowship with us; and our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. 4 And we are writing this that our joy may be complete.

5 This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him is no darkness at all. 6 If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not live according to the truth; 7 but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. 8 If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 10 If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

2:1 My little children, I am writing this to you so that you may not sin; but if any one does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; 2 and he is the expiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And by this we may be sure that we know him, if we keep his commandments. 4 He who says "I know him" but disobeys his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him; 5 but whoever keeps his word, in him truly love for God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: 6 he who says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked.

7 Beloved, I am writing you no new commandment, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning; the old commandment is the word which you have heard. 8 Yet I am writing you a new commandment, which is true in him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining. 9 He who says he is in the light and hates his brother is in the darkness still. 10 He who loves his brother abides in the light, and in it there is no cause for stumbling. 11 But he who hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

12 I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven for his sake. 13 I am writing to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. I write to you, children, because you know the Father. 14 I write to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

15 Do not love the world or the things in the world. If any one loves the world, love for the Father is not in him. 16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the pride of life, is not of the Father but is of the world. 17 And the world passes away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of God abides for ever.

18 Children, it is the last hour; and as you have heard that antichrist is coming, so now many antichrists have come; therefore we know that it is the last hour. 19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us; but they went out, that it might be plain that they all are not of us.

20 But you have been anointed by the Holy One, and you all know. 21 I write to you, not because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and know that no lie is of the truth. 22 Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, he who denies the Father and the Son. 23 No one who denies the Son has the Father. He who confesses the Son has the Father also. 24 Let what you heard from the beginning abide in you. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, then you will abide in the Son and in the Father. 25 And this is what he has promised us, eternal life.

26 I write this to you about those who would deceive you; 27 but the anointing which you received from him abides in you, and you have no need that any one should teach you; as his anointing teaches you about everything, and is true, and is no lie, just as it has taught you, abide in him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him, so that when he appears we may have confidence and not shrink from him in shame at his coming. 29 If you know that he is righteous, you may be sure that every one who does right is born of him.

3:1 See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. 2 Beloved, we are God's children now; it does not yet appear what we shall be, but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. 3 And every one who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure.

4 Every one who commits sin is guilty of lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. 5 You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. 6 No one who abides in him sins; no one who sins has either seen him or known him. 7 Little children, let no one deceive you. He who does right is righteous, as he is righteous. 8 He who commits sin is of the devil; for the devil has sinned from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. 9 No one born of God commits sin; for God's nature abides in him, and he cannot sin because he is born of God. 10 By this it may be seen who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not do right is not of God, nor he who does not love his brother.

11 For this is the message which you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. 12 and not be like Cain who was of the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own deeds were evil and his brother's righteous. 13 Do not wonder, brethren, that the world hates you. 14 We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brethren. He who does not love abides in death. 15 Any one who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. 16 By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us; and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. 17 But if any one has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? 18 Little children, let us not love in word or speech but in deed and in truth.

19 By this we shall know that we are of the truth, and reassure our hearts before him 20 whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything. 21 Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence before God; 22 and we receive from him whatever we ask, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. 23 And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. 24 All who keep his commandments abide in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit which he has given us.

4:1 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are of God; for many false prophets have gone out into the world. 2 By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit which confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, 3 and every spirit which does not confess Jesus is not of God. This is the spirit of antichrist, of which you heard that it was coming, and now it is in the world already.

4 Little children, you are of God, and have overcome them; for he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. 5 They are of the world, therefore what they say is of the world, and the world listens to them. 6 We are of God. Whoever knows God listens to us, and he who is not of God does not listen to us. By this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, let us love one another; for love is of God, and he who loves is born of God and knows God. 8 He who does not love does not know God; for God is love. 9 In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. 10 In this is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the expiation for our sins. 11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. 12 No man has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us.

13 By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his own Spirit. 14 And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son as the Savior of the world. 15 Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. 16 So we know and believe the love God has for us. God is love, and he who abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him.

17 In this is love perfected with us, that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so are we in this world. 18 There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and he who fears is not perfected in love. 19 We love, because he first loved us. 20 If any one says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, cannot love God whom he has not seen. 21 And this commandment we have from him, that he who loves God should love his brother also.

5:1 Every one who believes that Jesus is the Christ is a child of God, and every one who loves the parent loves the child. 2 By this you know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. 3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. 4 For whatever is born of God overcomes the world; and this is the victory that overcomes the world, our faith. 5 Who is it that overcomes the world but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 This is he who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ, not with the water only but with the water and the blood. 7 And the Spirit is the witness, because the Spirit is the truth. 8 There are three witnesses, the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and these three agree. 9 If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater; for this is the testimony of God that he has borne witness to his Son. 10 He who believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. He who does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne to his Son. 11 And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. 12 He who has the Son has life; he who has not the Son of God has not life.

13 I write this to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life. 14 And this is the confidence which we have in him, that if we ask anything according to his will he hears us. 15 And if we know that he hears us in whatever we ask, we know that we have obtained the requests made of him. 16 If any one sees his brother committing what is not a mortal sin, he will ask, and God will give him life for those whose sin is not mortal. There is sin which is mortal; I do not say that one is to pray for that. 17 All wrongdoing is sin, but there is sin which is not mortal.

18 We know that any one born of God does not sin, but He who was born of God keeps him, and the evil one does not touch him.

19 We know that we are of God, and the whole world is in the power of the evil one.

20 And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, to know him who is true; and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and eternal life. 21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols.

1:1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon and touched with our hands, concerning the word of life—² the life was made manifest and we saw it, and testify to it, and proclaim to you the eternal life which was with the Father and was made manifest to us—³ that which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you may have fellowship with us; and our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. ⁴ And we are writing this that our joy may be complete.

⁵ This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him is no darkness at all. ⁶ If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not live according to the truth; ⁷ but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. ⁸ If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. ⁹ If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. ¹⁰ If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

2:1 My little children, I am writing this to you so that you may not sin; but if any one does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; ² and he is the expiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

³ And by this we may be sure that we know him, if we keep his commandments. ⁴ He who says "I know him" but disobeys his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him; ⁵ but whoever keeps his word, in him truly love for God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: ⁶ he who says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked.

⁷ Beloved, I am writing you no new commandment, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning; the old commandment is the word which you have heard. ⁸ Yet I am writing you a new commandment, which is true in him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining. ⁹ He who says he is in the light and hates his brother is in the darkness still. ¹⁰ He who loves his brother abides in the light, and in it there is no cause for stumbling. ¹¹ But he who hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

1:3 It may seem rather strange that the author of 1 John should refer to the children of the world as "little children" (1:3, 7:14). The word "little" (pauculus) is used in the Latin Vulgate to describe the children of the world, and it is also used in the Greek text of the Bible (1 John 1:3, 7:14). The author of 1 John is referring to the children of the world as "little children" because they are of the world, and the world listens to them. The author of 1 John is referring to the children of the world as "little children" because they are of the world, and the world listens to them. 1:7 Whoever does not confess Jesus Christ who came in the flesh, he is the deceiver and the liar, and he who denies him, he will bring his own soul into condemnation. 8 He who confesses that Jesus 4 Little children, you are of God, and have overcome them; for he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. 5 They are of the world, therefore what they say is of the world, and the world listens to them. 6 We are of God. Whoever knows God listens to us, and he who is not of God does not listen to us. By this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, 2 To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ who are at Laodicea: Grace to you and peace from God our Father.

3 We always thank God, the Father, our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you, because we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love which you have for all the saints, 5 because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. Of this you have heard before in the word of the truth, the gospel which has come to you, and indeed in the whole world it is bearing fruit and growing—so among yourselves, from the day you heard and understood the grace of God in truth, 7 as you learned it from Epaphras our beloved fellow servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on our behalf 8 and has made known to us your love in the Spirit.

9 And so, from the day we heard of it, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, 10 to lead a life worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God. 11 May you be strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy, 12 giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified us to share in the inheritance of the saints in light. 13 He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, 14 in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

15 He is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of all creation; 16 for in him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or authorities—all things were created through him and for him. 17 He is before all things, and in him all things hold together.

18 He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the first-born from the dead, in that in everything he might be pre-eminent. 19 For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell.

20 and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross.

21 And you, who once were estranged and hostile to him, by his death, 22 he has reconciled to himself by his blood, 23 to present to himself a holy and blameless and without blemish people, 24 who are circumscribed about hearts of flesh, 25 that you should be able to declare the mystery of Christ, on account of which I am in prison, 26 that I may make it clear to you.

27 But now put them all away: wrath, malice, slander, and foul talk from your mouth, 9 Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the

For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily, 19 and you have come to fullness of life in him, who is the head of all rule, authority, and power. 20 In him also were circumscribed all things, whether visible or invisible, 21 that were created through him and for him, when you were raised with him through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead.

24 Now I rejoice in my sufferings for you, and in my flesh I complete what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, the church, 25 of which I became a minister according to the divine office which was made me for you, to make the word of God known, 26 the mystery hidden for ages and generations but now made manifest to his saints. 27 To them God chose to make known how among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. 28 Him we proclaim, warning every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, 29 that we may present every man mature in Christ. 30 I toil, striving with all the energy which mightily inspires within me.

22 For I want you to know how greatly I love you, and for those at Laodicea, and who have not seen my face, 2 that their hearts may be encouraged as they are knit together, to have all the riches of assured standing and the knowledge of God's will of Christ, 3 in whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

4 I say this in order that no one may delude you with beguiling speech. 5 For though I am absent in body, yet I am with you in spirit, rejoicing to see your good order and the firmness of your faith in Christ.

6 As therefore you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so live in him, 7 rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.

8 See to it that no one makes a prey of you by philosophy and empty deceit, according to human tradition, according to the elemental spirits of the universe, and not according to Christ, 9

18 I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand. Remember my letters. Grace be with you.

1/1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and touched with our hands, concerning the life which was made manifest, and we have proclaimed to you, and testify to it, and proclaim to you, eternal life, which was with the Father and made manifest to us... 2/1 My little children, I am writing this to you so that you may not sin, but if any one does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous... 3/ And by this we may be sure that we know him, if we keep his commandments... 7 Beloved, I am writing you no new commandment, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning: the old commandment is the word which you have heard... 10 He who loves his brother abides in the light, and in it there is no cause for stumbling... 11 But he who hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

1/2 I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven for his sake... 2/2 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are of God... 3/2 See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God, and so we are... 4/1 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are of God... 5/1 Every one who believes that Jesus is the Christ is a child of God, and everyone who loves the parent loves the child... 6/1 Do not love the world or the things of the world... 7/1 Children, it is the last hour, and as you hear that antichrist is coming, so now antichrists have come... 8/1 But you have been anointed by the One, and you all know... 9/1 By this we shall know that we are of the truth, and reassure our hearts before him... 10/1 I write this to you about those who would deceive you... 11/1 In this is love perfected with us, that we may have confidence for the day of judgment... 12/1 We know that any one born of God does not sin, but He who was born of God keeps him, and the evil one does not touch him... 13/1 We know that we are of God, and the whole world is in the power of the evil one... 14/1 And we know that the Son of God has come and he is in him who is true, and in his Son Jesus Christ, who is the true God and eternal life... 15/1 Little children, keep yourselves from idols.

1/3 And we are writing this that our joy may be complete... 2/2 This is the message we have heard from him and proclaimed to you, that God is light and in him is no darkness at all... 3/1 If we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin... 4/1 Children, it is the last hour, and as you hear that antichrist is coming, so now antichrists have come... 5/1 But you have been anointed by the One, and you all know... 6/1 By this we shall know that we are of the truth, and reassure our hearts before him... 7/1 In this is love perfected with us, that we may have confidence for the day of judgment... 8/1 We know that any one born of God does not sin, but He who was born of God keeps him, and the evil one does not touch him... 9/1 We know that we are of God, and the whole world is in the power of the evil one... 10/1 And we know that the Son of God has come and he is in him who is true, and in his Son Jesus Christ, who is the true God and eternal life... 11/1 Little children, keep yourselves from idols.

A goal-setting process involves creating milestones for yourself and building a strategy to help you stick to achieving these goals. Goal-setting allows you to identify a new objective, skill or task you'd like to accomplish and establish a clear path using smaller tasks to help reach your end goal.

1:1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, touched with our hands, concerning the life which was made manifest, and we have proclaimed to you, and testify to it, and proclaim to you eternal life which was with the Father and made manifest to us—that which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you may have fellowship with us; and our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. 1:2 And we are writing this that our joy may be complete. 1:3 This is the message which we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him is no darkness at all. 1:4 If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not live according to the truth, but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. 1:5 If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 1:6 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 1:7 If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. 1:8 My little children, I am writing this to you so that you may not sin; but if any one does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. 1:9 and he is the expiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world. 1:10 And by this we may be sure that we know him, if we keep his commandments. 1:11 He who says "I know him" but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him; 1:12 but whoever keeps his word, in him truly love for God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: 1:13 he who says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. 1:14 Beloved, I am writing you no new commandment, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning: the old commandment is the word which you have heard. 1:15 Yet I am writing you a new commandment, which is true in him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining. 1:16 He who says he is in the light but hates his brother is in the darkness still. 1:17 He who loves his brother abides in the light, and in it there is no cause for stumbling. 1:18 But he who hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes. 1:19 See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God, and so we are. The love which we have received from him is that we should be called children of God, and so we are. The love which we have received from him is that we should be called children of God, and so we are. 1:20 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are of God; for many false prophets have gone out into the world. 1:21 By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit which confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God. This is the spirit of truth, of which you heard that it was coming, the world already every spirit, but they are of God, who have loved us, and we should love one another. 1:22 Every one who believes that Jesus is the Christ is a child of God, and everyone who loves the parent loves the child. 1:23 By this we know that we love the children: when we love God and obey his commandments. 1:24 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. 1:25 Whoever is born of God overcomes the world, and this is the victory that overcomes the world, our faith. 1:26 Who is it that overcomes the world but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? 1:27 who came by water and blood, not with the water only but with the blood. 1:28 And the Spirit is because the Spirit is the truth. 1:29 We witness, the Spirit, the water, and these three agree. 1:30 If we testify of men, the testimony of men, for this is the testimony of God true witness to his Son. 1:31 He who is the Son of God has the testimony He who does not believe God has lied, because he has not believed in that God has borne to his Son. 1:32 The testimony that God gave us eternally is in his Son. 1:33 He who has life, he who has not the Son of God. 1:34 who you believe in the name of God, that you may know that you are of God. 1:35 And this is the confidence we have in him, that if we ask anything his will he hears us. 1:36 And if we have obtained the requests made any one sees his brother committing a mortal sin, he will ask, and his life for those whose sins is not mortal, I do not say that one is to pray for that. 1:37 All wrongdoing is sin, but there is sin which is not mortal. 1:38 We know that any one born of God does not sin, but He who was born of God keeps him, and the evil one does not touch him. 1:39 We know that we are of God, and the whole world is in the power of the evil one. 1:40 And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, to know him who is true; and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ, the true God and eternal life. 1:41 Little children, keep yourselves from idols.

Chap 2

2:1 My little children, I am writing this to you so that you may not sin, but if any one does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; 2 and he is the expiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And by this we may be sure that we know him, if we keep his commandments. 4 He who says "I know him" but disobeys his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him; 5 but whoever keeps his word, in him truly love for God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: 6 he who says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked.

7 Beloved, I am writing you no new commandment, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning; the old commandment is the word which you have heard. 8 Yet I am writing you a new commandment, which is true in him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining. 9 He who says he is in the light and hates his brother is in the darkness still. 10 He who loves his brother abides in the light, and in it there is no cause for stumbling. 11 But he who hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

1:1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon and touched with our hands, concerning the word of life—2 the life was made manifest, and we saw it, and testify to it, and proclaim to you the eternal life which was with the Father and made manifest to us—3 that which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you may have fellowship with us; and our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. 4 And we are writing this that our joy may be complete.

5 This is the message which we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him is no darkness at all. 6 If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not live according to the truth; 7 but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. 8 If we say we have sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 10 If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

2:1 My little children, I am writing this to you so that you may not sin, but if any one does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. 2 and he is the expiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And by this we may be sure that we know him, if we keep his commandments. 4 He who says "I know him" but disobeys his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him; 5 but whoever keeps his word, in him truly love for God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: 6 he who says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked.

7 Beloved, I am writing you no new commandment, but an old commandment which you received from the beginning: the old commandment is the word which you have heard. 8 Yet I am writing you a new commandment, which is true in him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining. 9 He who says he is in the light and hates his brother is in the darkness still. 10 He who loves his brother abides in the light, and in it there is no cause for stumbling. 11 But he who hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

3:1 See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God, and so we are. The love that we have received is that we should not be afraid of what we have heard, for the love that we have received is greater than all fear. 2 By this you know that the Spirit of God has come into the world. 3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. 4 For whatsoever is born of God overcomes the world, and this is the victory that has come into the world—our faith. 5 Who is it that overcomes the world but he who believes that Jesus Christ is a child of God, and everyone who loves the parent loves the child. 6 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. 7 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. 4:1 And now we know that the Son of God has come into the world, and he has given us the Son, that we may know him and have fellowship with him forever. 2 And the love that we have received is that we should love one another, that we may have confidence before him, and he will answer our prayers. 3 And if anyone sins, he has an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; 4 and he is the expiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

1/1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and touched with our hands, concerning the word of life— the life was made manifest, and we saw it, and testify to it, and proclaim to you the eternal life which was with the Father and made manifest to us— that which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you may have fellowship with us; and our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. 2 And we are writing this that our joy may be complete.

5 This is the message we have heard in him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him is no darkness at all. 6 If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not love according to the truth, but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. 7 If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 8 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 9 If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

2/1 My little children, I am writing this to you so you may not sin, but if any one does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. 2 And he is the expiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And by this we may be sure that we know him, if we keep his commandments. 4 He who says "I know him" but does not his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him; 5 but whoever keeps his word, in him truly love for God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: 6 he who says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked.

7 Beloved, I am writing you no new commandment, but an old commandment is the word which you have heard. 8 If I am writing you a new commandment, which is true in him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining. 9 He who says he is in the light and hates his brother is in the darkness still. 10 He who loves his brother abides in the light, and in it there is no cause for stumbling. 11 But he who hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

1/2 I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven for his sake. 1/3 I am writing to you, because you know the Father, but you do not know him who loved us, so that you may not be overcome by the deceits of the evil one, but that you may be sure that you have fellowship with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. 2 Every one who commits sin is guilty of lawlessness.

1/5 Do not love the world or the things of the world. If any one loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. 1/6 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the pride of life, is not of the Father who is in us, but he who does the will of God abides in him.

1/8 Children, it is the last hour, and as you have heard that antichrist is coming, so now antichrists have come; therefore we know their spirit is false, and they will go out into the world, and they will deceive many people. 1/9 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us; but they went out, that it might be plain that they are not of us.

2/0 But you have been anointed by the Spirit, and you all know. 2/1 I write to you because you do not know the truth, but you know it, and that is the confidence we have in him, that if we ask anything his will he hears us. 2/2 And if we hear us, we have obtained the requests made any one that he asks. 2/3 Therefore we know that all we ask of him, he hears us, and does for us our will. 2/4 And this is the love that we have in him, that because he has promised us, eternal life, we shall have it. 2/5 And this is what he has promised us, eternal life, and his word is in us.

2/6 I write this to you about those who have deceived you. 2/7 But the anointing which you received from him abides in you, and you have no need that any one should teach you; as his anointing teaches you about everything, and is true, and is no lie, just as it has taught you, abide in him.

2/8 And now, little children, abide in him, so that when he appears we may have confidence and not shrink from him in shame at his coming. 2/9 If you know that he is righteous, you may be sure that every one who does right is born of him.

3/1 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are of God; for many false prophets have gone out into the world. 2 By this you know the Spirit of God: when we hear love God and obey his commandments, we have love for the Father, who has come in the flesh; and who keeps his commandments, the love of God is perfected in us. 3 Who is it that does not love the Father who has revealed these things to us, and who does not love the brother whom he has seen, cannot love God whom he has not seen. 4 And this commandment we have from him, that he who loves God should love his brother also.

3/2 See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God, and so we are. The love that we have heard, that we have seen, that we have touched, and we have proclaimed to you, that we have fellowship with us, and our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. 2 And we are writing this that our joy may be complete.

3/3 This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that he who is light and in him is no darkness at all. 3/4 If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not love according to the truth. 3/5 If we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. 3/6 If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 3/7 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 3/8 If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

3/9 My little children, I am writing this to you so that you may not sin, but if any one does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. 2 And he is the expiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

3/10 I write to you, because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and that is the confidence we have in him, that if we ask anything his will he hears us. 3/11 And if we hear us, we have obtained the requests made any one that he asks. 3/12 Therefore we know that all we ask of him, he hears us, and does for us our will. 3/13 And this is the love that we have in him, that because he has promised us, eternal life, we shall have it. 3/14 And this is what he has promised us, eternal life, and his word is in us.

3/15 I write this to you about those who would deceive you: 3/16 But the anointing which you received from the beginning abides in you, and you have no need that any one should teach you; as his anointing teaches you about everything, and is true, and is no lie, just as it has taught you, abide in him.

3/17 And now, little children, abide in him, so that when he appears we may have confidence and not shrink from him in shame at his coming. 3/18 If you know that he is righteous, you may be sure that every one who does right is born of him.

4/1 I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven for his sake. 1/1 I am writing to you, because you know the Father, but you do not know him who loved us, so that you may not be overcome by the deceits of the evil one, but that you may be sure that you have fellowship with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. 2 Every one who commits sin is guilty of lawlessness.

4/2 See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God, and so we are. The love that we have heard, that we have seen, that we have touched, and we have proclaimed to you, that we have fellowship with us, and our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. 2 And we are writing this that our joy may be complete.

4/3 This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that he who is light and in him is no darkness at all. 4/4 If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not love according to the truth. 4/5 If we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. 4/6 If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 4/7 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 4/8 If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

4/9 My little children, I am writing this to you so that you may not sin, but if any one does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. 2 And he is the expiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

4/10 I write to you, because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and that is the confidence we have in him, that if we ask anything his will he hears us. 4/11 And if we hear us, we have obtained the requests made any one that he asks. 4/12 Therefore we know that all we ask of him, he hears us, and does for us our will. 4/13 And this is the love that we have in him, that because he has promised us, eternal life, we shall have it. 4/14 And this is what he has promised us, eternal life, and his word is in us.

4/15 I write this to you about those who would deceive you: 4/16 But the anointing which you received from the beginning abides in you, and you have no need that any one should teach you; as his anointing teaches you about everything, and is true, and is no lie, just as it has taught you, abide in him.

4/17 And now, little children, abide in him, so that when he appears we may have confidence and not shrink from him in shame at his coming. 4/18 If you know that he is righteous, you may be sure that every one who does right is born of him.

5/1 Every one who believes that Jesus is the Christ is a child of God, and every one who loves the parent loves the child. 2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. 3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. 4 For whatever is born of God overcomes the world, and this is the victory that overcomes the world, our faith. 5 Who is it that overcomes the world but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

5/2 I write thus to you who believe that you have eternal life. 5/3 And this is the confidence which we have in him, that if we ask anything according to his will he hears us. 5/4 And if we know that he hears us in whatever we ask, we know that we have obtained the requests which he has promised us. 5/5 If any one sees his brother committing what is not a mortal sin, he should not go beyond it, but he who hates his brother is in the mortal sin, and his sin is mortal. There is sin which is mortal. I do not say that one is to pray for that. 5/6 All wrongdoing is sin, but there is sin which is not mortal.

5/7 We know that any one born of God does not sin, but he who was born of God keeps him, and the evil one does not touch him. 5/8 Who is it that sins? We know that he who sins is born of the devil. 5/9 And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, to know him who is true, and we are in him who has come into the world, and we are in his Son, Jesus Christ. This is the eternal life. 5/10 Little children, do not be led by idols.

4 Little children, you are of God, and have overcome them; for he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. 5 They are of the world, therefore what they say is of the world, and the world listens to them. 6 We are of God. Whoever knows God listens to us, and he who is not of God does not listen to us. By this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

Summary of 1 JN 4.4-6

[Empty box for summary content]

1:1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon and touched with our hands, concerning the word of life—2 the life was made manifest, and we saw it, and testify to it, and proclaim to you the eternal life which was with the Father and was made manifest to us—3 that which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you may have fellowship with us; and our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. 4 And we are writing this that our joy may be complete.

5 This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him is no darkness at all. 6 If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not live according to the truth; 7 but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. 8 If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 10 If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

2:1 My little children, I am writing this to you so that you may not sin; but if any one does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; 2 and he is the expiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And by this we may be sure that we know him, if we keep his commandments. 4 He who says “I know him” but disobeys his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him; 5 but whoever keeps his word, in him truly love for God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: 6 he who says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked.

7 Beloved, I am writing you no new commandment, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning; the old commandment is the word which you have heard. 8 Yet I am writing you a new commandment, which is true in him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining. 9 He who says he is in the light and hates his brother is in the darkness still. 10 He who loves his brother abides in the light, and in it there is no cause for stumbling. 11 But he who hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

12 I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven for his sake. 13 I am writing to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. I write to you, children, because you know the Father. 14 I write to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

15 Do not love the world or the things in the world. If any one loves the world, love for the Father is not in him. 16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the pride of life, is not of the Father but is of the world. 17 And the world passes away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of God abides for ever.

18 Children, it is the last hour; and as you have heard that antichrist is coming, so now many antichrists have come; therefore we know that it is the last hour. 19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us; but they went out, that it might be plain that they all are not of us.

20 But you have been anointed by the Holy One, and you all know. 21 I write to you, not because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and know that no lie is of the truth. 22 Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, he who denies the Father and the Son. 23 No one who denies the Son has the Father. He who confesses the Son has the Father also. 24 Let what you heard from the beginning abide in you. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, then you will abide in the Son and in the Father. 25 And this is what he has promised us, eternal life.

26 I write this to you about those who would deceive you; 27 but the anointing which you received from him abides in you, and you have no need that any one should teach you; as his anointing teaches you about everything, and is true, and is no lie, just as it has taught you, abide in him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him, so that when he appears we may have confidence and not shrink from him in shame at his coming. 29 If you know that he is righteous, you may be sure that every one who does right is born of him.

3:1 See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. 2 Beloved, we are God’s children now; it does not yet appear what we shall be, but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. 3 And every one who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure.

4 Every one who commits sin is guilty of lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. 5 You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. 6 No one who abides in him sins; no one who sins has either seen him or known him. 7 Little children, let no one deceive you. He who does right is righteous, as he is righteous. 8 He who commits sin is of the devil; for the devil has sinned from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. 9 No one born of God commits sin; for God’s nature abides in him, and he cannot sin because he is born of God. 10 By this it may be seen who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not do right is not of God, nor he who does not love his brother.

11 For this is the message which you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. 12 and not be like Cain who was of the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own deeds were evil and his brother’s righteous. 13 Do not wonder, brethren, that the world hates you. 14 We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brethren. He who does not love abides in death. 15 Any one who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. 16 By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us; and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. 17 But if any one has the world’s goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God’s love abide in him? 18 Little children, let us not love in word or speech but in deed and in truth.

19 By this we shall know that we are of the truth, and reassure our hearts before him 20 whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything. 21 Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence before God; 22 and we receive from him whatever we ask, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. 23 And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. 24 All who keep his commandments abide in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit which he has given us.

4:1 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are of God; for many false prophets have gone out into the world. 2 By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit which confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, 3 and every spirit which does not confess Jesus is not of God. This is the spirit of antichrist, of which you heard that it was coming, and now it is in the world already.

4 Little children, you are of God, and have overcome them; for he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. 5 They are of the world, therefore what they say is of the world, and the world listens to them. 6 We are of God. Whoever knows God listens to us, and he who is not of God does not listen to us. By this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, let us love one another; for love is of God, and he who loves is born of God and knows God. 8 He who does not love does not know God; for God is love. 9 In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. 10 In this is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the expiation for our sins. 11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. 12 No man has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us.

13 By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his own Spirit. 14 And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son as the Savior of the world. 15 Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. 16 So we know and believe the love God has for us. God is love, and he who abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him.

17 In this is love perfected with us, that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so are we in this world. 18 There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and he who fears is not perfected in love. 19 We love, because he first loved us. 20 If any one says, “I love God,” and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, cannot love God whom he has not seen. 21 And this commandment we have from him, that he who loves God should love his brother also.

5:1 Every one who believes that Jesus is the Christ is a child of God, and every one who loves the parent loves the child. 2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. 3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. 4 For whatever is born of God overcomes the world; and this is the victory that overcomes the world, our faith. 5 Who is it that overcomes the world but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 This is he who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ, not with the water only but with the water and the blood. 7 And the Spirit is the witness, because the Spirit is the truth. 8 There are three witnesses, the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and these three agree. 9 If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater; for this is the testimony of God that he has borne witness to his Son. 10 He who believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. He who does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne to his Son. 11 And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. 12 He who has the Son has life; he who has not the Son of God has not life.

13 I write this to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life. 14 And this is the confidence which we have in him, that if we ask anything according to his will he hears us. 15 And if we know that he hears us in whatever we ask, we know that we have obtained the requests made of him. 16 If any one sees his brother committing what is not a mortal sin, he will ask, and God will give him life for those whose sin is not mortal. There is sin which is mortal; I do not say that one is to pray for that. 17 All wrongdoing is sin, but there is sin which is not mortal.

18 We know that any one born of God does not sin, but He who was born of God keeps him, and the evil one does not touch him.

19 We know that we are of God, and the whole world is in the power of the evil one.

20 And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, to know him who is true; and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and eternal life. 21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols.
