I have found the One whom my soul
doth love,
Song of Solomon
3:4

Step out in full faith to jointly participate in HIM LIVING

Eph 3:20 Now to him who by the power at work within us is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, 21 to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, for ever and ever. Amen.
(RSV)

Heb 13:20 Now may the God of peace who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, 21 equip you with everything good that you may do his will, working in you that which is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Col 1:9 And so, from the day we heard of it, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding,
10 to lead a life worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God.

*Step out in full faith to jointly participate in HIM LIVING
I am the expression of His Life*

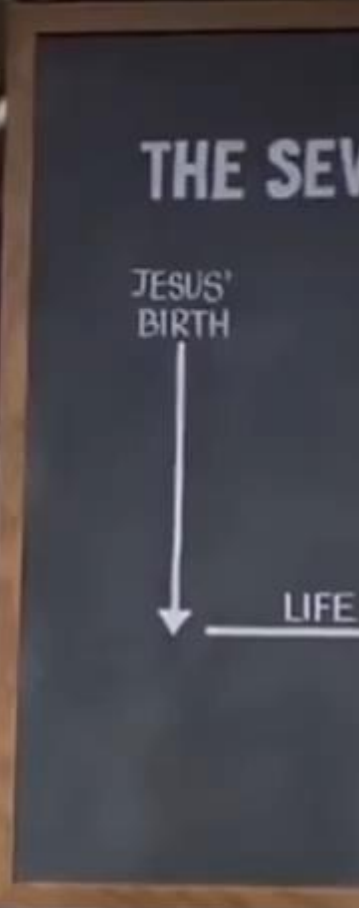

3 And by this we may be sure that we know him, if we keep his commandments. 4 He who says "I know him" but disobeys his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him: 5 but whoever keeps his word, in him truly love for God is perfected. By this we may be sure that we are in him: 6 he who says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked.

Learning what 'keeping his commandments' actually lives like truth in me lives like keep his word lives like love for God perfected lives like abiding in Him lives like walk in the same way lives like how He walked lives like

John 13:34 ESV

A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another:
just as I have loved you,
so you also are to love one another.

and do them.

Ezekiel 36:27

Greatest Commands

Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.

The second is this:

Love your neighbor as yourself.

no commandment greater than these.

12 I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven for his sake. 13 I am writing to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. I write to you, children, because you know the Father. 14 I write to you, fathers,

26 I write this to you about those who would deceive you; 27 but the anointing which you received from him abides in you, and you have no need that any one should teach you; as his anointing teaches you about everything, and is true, and is no lie, just as it has taught you, abide in him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him, so that when he appears we may have confidence and not shrink from him in shame at his coming. 29 If you know that he is righteous, you may be sure that every one who does right is born of him.

3:1 See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called sons of God, and we have not yet received his glory. 2 And the love which was with the Father has come into the world, and we have seen it and touch it and we shall see it. 3 And the love which was with the Father has come into the world, and we have seen it and touch it and we shall see it. 4 And the love which was with the Father has come into the world, and we have seen it and touch it and we shall see it.

and reassure our hearts before him 20 whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything. 21 Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence before God; 22 and we receive from him whatever we ask, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. 23 And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. 24 All who keep his commandments abide in him, and he in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit which he has given us.

4:1 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but whether they are of God; 2 the Spirit of God: 3 confesses that Jesus Christ is of God, 3 and every one who confesses Jesus is not of God, 4 of antichrist, of which the world is coming, and now it is in the world.

17 In this is the love which we have confidence before him: 18 that if we love, we shall have confidence before him, and we shall not be afraid. 19 For fear has not perfected in love. 20 If any one does not love God whom he has seen, cannot love God whom he has not seen, 21 And this commandment we have, that he who loves God should love his brother also.

5:1 Every one who believes that Jesus is the Christ is a child of God, and every one who loves the parent loves the child. 2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. 3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. 4 For whatever is born of God overcomes the world; and this is the victory that overcomes the world, our faith. 5 Who is it that overcomes the world but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 This is he who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ, not with the water only but with the water and the blood. 7 And the Spirit is the witness, because the Spirit is the truth. 8 There are three witnesses, the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and these three agree. 9 If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is the testimony of God who testifies to his Son. 10 He who does not believe God has the testimony which God has borne to his Son. 11 The testimony which God gave us eternally in his Son. 12 He who loves his brother who has not the Son of God

He who does not love what he laid down his life for, but loves his soul, and does not love his brother who has laid down his life for the world's good, how does he close his heart against the love of God which abides in him? 18 Let us love one another, that we may have peace. Love is love which is expressed in truth or speech but in deed

19: we shall know that we have received the Father's love and our hearts before

20: hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything. 21 Do not be afraid of those who do not condemn us, we have fear of God; 22 and we receive from the Father the love of God because we keep his commandments which please him. 23 And this is his love, that we should believe in the name of the Son of God and love one another, just as he loved us. 24 All who keep his commandments will have the Father and he in them. And by this we know that we have received the Father's love in us, by the Spirit which he has given us, and he and the Father

7 Beloved, I am writing you no new commandment, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning; the old commandment is the word which you have heard. 8 Yet I am writing you a new commandment, which is true in him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining. 9 He who says he is in the light and hates his brother is in the darkness still. 10 He who loves his brother abides in the light, and in it there is no cause for stumbling. 11 But he who hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

26 I write this to you about those who would deceive you; 27 but the anointing which you received from him abides in you, and you have no need that any one should teach you; as his anointing teaches you about everything, and is true, and is no lie, just as it has taught you, abide in him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him, so that when he appears we may have confidence and not shrink from him in shame at his coming. 29 If you know that he is righteous, you may be sure that every one who does right is born of him.
